Dedication

We, the staff, gratefully and respectfully dedicate this yearbook to an administrator and friend

Who has given unstintingly of his abilities, of his time, and of himself to keep the academy on a sound financial basis and to promote Christian ideals.

To you, Mr. Elmer Lampson, this 1966 Rainier Vista is dedicated.

This page sponsored by Dr. Raymond A. Gardner and The Robert L. Davis Apple Orchards.

Table of Contents

One takes from life what he puts into it. Life is a complex mixture of what one sees, what he does, and what he feels.

Auburn Academy strives to supply those things which develop not only the mind and the strength, but also the soul. Its campus curriculum and atmosphere emphasize concern for the development of "the head, heart, and hand."

Surrounding Auburn's campus are some of God's most beautiful works. Wherever one looks there is NATURE in all its grandeur, from the flower by the walk, to the mountain that reaches heavenward.

The study of God's REVELATION to man is an integral facet of the school's activities, curriculum and atmosphere.

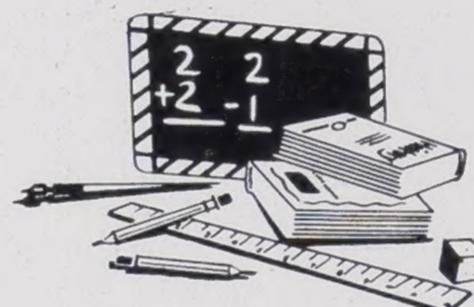

This year 400 students have come to Auburn Academy where NATURE and REVELATION unite in EDUCATION.

Education 17

A black and white photograph of a forest scene. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted tree trunks and branches. The ground appears to be covered in fallen leaves or low-lying vegetation. In the middle ground, a path or clearing leads towards a distant, hazy horizon where a body of water meets a cloudy sky. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and serene.

Revelation

At a time when the foundations of the earth are shaken and the future seems uncertain, youth must build on something solid and sure. That something is the Bible--revelation of God's character and His will for His children.

"Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path."
Psalms 119:105

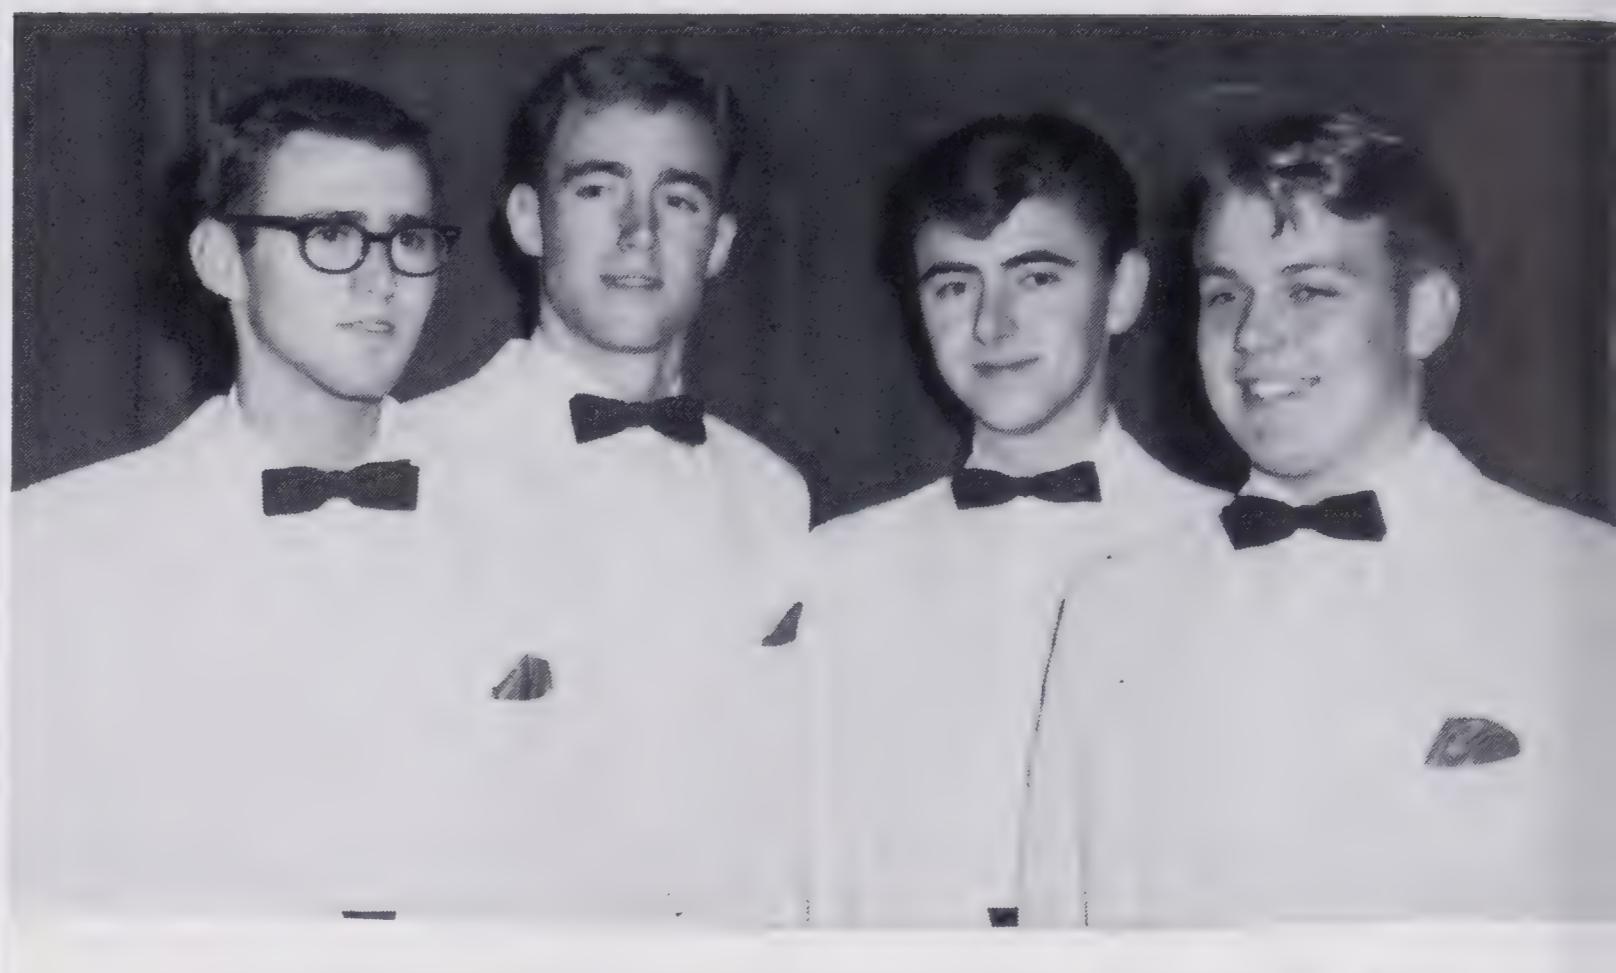

This page sponsored by Rainier Echoes.

Each year caroling brings support from the student body. Shown are: Marilyn Randall, Jerry Wentland, Fred Dalgleish, Brenda Barnhart, Jim Becroft, Linda Johnson, and a generous donor.

The Senior quartet is much in demand at religious services. Members are Ken Bariel, Steve Bliss, Larry Crooker, Dick McClain.

Musical Inspirations

Carol Aimes, Cheri Leno, and Lois Aimes. Senior trio lend variety to Academy programs.

Blending the mellow tones of their music, the Junior trumpet trio, Mike Stone, Bob Vandenburg, and Leonard Pierce, add to the reverent atmosphere of the worship services.

Sabbath School

Sabbath School leaders play a vital role in the Academy division of "the biggest school in the world." First semester officers:
Mrs. B. Soule,
advisor;
Jim Reinking,
Asta Sakala,
Jan Johnson,
Chuck Lynch,
Larry Swanson,
Sandy Funner,
Emily Braun,
Mr. Larry Hasse,
advisor.

The Sabbath School provides an opportunity for the students to plan weekly programs. Second semester officers, SEATED: Nancy Landis, Kathy Roesler, Carol Cooper, Jerry Hirschkorn, Marvel Jones, Maurene Dahl, Carol Mann. STANDING: Lois Aimes, Marilyn Wren, Pat Ebanks, Marilyn Luce, Mrs. B. Soule, Advisor; Jan Fletcher, Marilynn McCoy, Wayne Kiselbach.

The Missionary Volunteer Society promotes leadership to develop interesting and worthwhile programs. First semester officers are: Lois Aimes, Nancy Crozier, Mrs. L. Crays, Advisor; Janice Fletcher, Jerry Hirschkorn, Carol Mann, Mr. H. Weir, Advisor; Marilyn Wren, Larry Johnson, Linda Rhynard, Ken Bariel, Vivian Grubb.

Missionary Volunteers

Missionary Volunteer activities range from speakers to socials, but keep attuned to the spiritual uplifting of the students. Second semester officers are: Mr. F. W. Lowe and Mrs. M. Lowe, Advisors; Jeralyn Saundier, Bill Lindeman, Laura Dalgleish, Jim Becraft, Jackie Rodenberger, Chery Lowe, Lois Aimes, Kathleen MacKay, Steve Dickerson, Ellen Wilson.

With Elder D. Anderson, the following students participated in a series of meetings entitled "Christ for the Crisis" in the Auburn City S.D.A. Church: C. Wellman, D. Griebel, L. Dalgleish, J. Johnson, L. Downs, G. Peters, M. Baker, J. Reinking, C. Lowe.

Voice of Youth

An on-campus organization, the Voice of Youth chooses its officers bi-annually to lead in its spiritual uplifting and soul-winning endeavors. They are: B. Lindeman, M. Wren, Elder E. Norton, Advisor; S. Dickerson, President; J. Johnson, D. Claridge, L. Dalgleish, Bob Balser. Bob Balser, President; not shown.

Usher and

Ushers Club officers, Nancy Landis, Vice-President; Jim Purdom, President; and Vicki Wolfkill, Secretary-Treasurer; have the responsibility of providing ushers and usherettes at all religious and special meetings.

Elder R. Lodahl presents the prize money to Del Griebel for his first-prize temperance oration on tobacco, "The Epidemic We Promote."

Temperance Clubs

The Temperance Club is organized to promote temperance education in the school. Its leaders are Mr. Leland Quinn, advisor; Lois Aimes, Nancy Pyke, George Peters. Not shown are Mr. Ray Leadbetter and Mr. Harold Weir, advisors.

Mrs. Josephine C. Edwards, a week-end campus guest, kept the audiences spell-bound with her tales of God's leading hand throughout her life in America and Africa.

Princess Alice Siwundhla, now working on her doctorate in California, is the most highly educated woman in her native country, Malawi, Africa. A most outstanding speaker, she attracted large audiences to each service.

Guests Enhance Religious Services

The Auburn Academy choir combined with the Auburn High School Choir and various local church choirs in two inspiring performances of Handel's "Messiah."

Inspiration Comes from Weeks of Spiritual Emphasis

Fall Week of Prayer was conducted by Elder P. W. Dunham, pastor of the Stone Tower SDA Church in Portland, Oregon.

Elder J. G. Ziegler, pastor of the Lake Forest Park SDA Church, Seattle, presented the Spring Week of Devotion.

During the Student Week of Devotion, Cheryl Gardner, Bob Balser, Laura Downs, Marilyn Bulgin, Terry Foss, Vivian Grubb, Nancy Crozier, Del Griebel, Marcia Baker, Jim Becraft, and Laura Dalgleish presented the topic "Christ is Coming--Who Cares?"

Principal- More Than an Administrator

VICTOR H. FULLERTON, B. Th., M. Ed.
Principal

Amazing talent was manifested by the principal early in the school year at a Faculty-Talent Program!

Elder Fullerton, counselor and friend, takes time to chat with senior, Bill Richards.

Mr. Kenneth Ladd, B.S., performs the very essential job of school Accountant.

Mr. Elmer Lampson, B.S., skillfully executes the time-consuming office of Academy Business Manager.

Directors of School Affairs

The distinguished men who comprise the Auburn Academy Board of Directors are: Elder V. H. Fullerton, Mr. E. C. Christie, Elder N. R. Dower, Elder J. T. Porter, Elder W. J. Hackett, Elder L. W. Crooker. STANDING: Mr. H. Hellmerson, Elder D. L. Kindig, audit committee member; Elder S. W. Hitzen, Elder A. R. Lodahl, Mr. M. Perman, audit committee member; Dr. J. D. Fletcher, audit committee member; Dr. T. W. Walters, Mr. W. Campbell, Elder C. A. Shepherd, Elder L. J. Ehrhardt. Other members not shown are: Elder E. S. Humann, Elder M. J. Perry, Dr. R. E. Littlejohn, Mr. J. M. Simpson.

Mr. Arthur H. Nelson who occupies the office of vice-principal, is also registrar.

Elder Duane H. Anderson, academy pastor, heads the guidance department and teaches Youth Guidance.

Guidance and Counseling

A true friend of the students, Elder Ed Norton, B.A., M.A., BD., teaches Principles of Life and Youth Guidance. His desire is that his students come to know Christ as their personal friend.

Helping a student to understand how to meet life's situations and to face the future is a major part of counseling. Elder Norton and Mr. Nelson talk with senior, Doug Hartwell.

Mrs. Virginia Simonds, B. S. , teaches the Typing classes skills which prove very valuable in meeting written assignments.

Business Math., Business Machines, Shorthand, and Typing essentials in the commercial world, are taught by Mr. Hal F. Crays, A. B., M. A.

Business and Secretarial Science

Time tests have always been a major part of Mrs. Simonds' Typing classes. This department with its new electric and standard typewriters, is beautifully equipped.

The duplicating department always has its share of business. Marilyn Randall reproduces many copies on the mimeograph machine as Mrs. Simonds looks on.

"What ails my machine?" Mr. Crays aids Terri Fey in Business Machines class.

Mrs. Bessie Soule, B.A., academy librarian, keeps the school library well-stocked and up to date.

For reference, research, or relaxation, the library has just the book - as Connie McClannahan, student librarian, discovers.

Library-The Hub of Learning

-- an aid and a challenge --

Twila Green and Julie Maxon look for just the right material.

The library provides a quiet atmosphere in which to study.

Mr. Ron R. Miller, B.A., heads the Political Science department and instructs classes in American History and Principles of Life.

Washington State History, American History, and Contemporary World Affairs are brought to life by Mr. Larry Hasse, B.A.

Political Science

Mr. Ron Miller prepares his students to be responsible, informed citizens as he explains the legislative system to them.

Overhead projection is used by Mr. Hasse to depict more vividly the events of the day.

Mr. Ray Leadbetter, B. A., M. A., publicity director; also teaches Journalism, English III and IV, and Principles of Life.

Mrs. Laurinda Crays, B. A., M. A., encourages creative writing, thinking, and speaking in the junior and senior English classes.

Learnin'

Jackie Rodenberger learns how to carry on an intelligent telephone conversation in Mrs. Crays' English IV class.

Readin'

The Journalism class, responsible for the Rainier Echoes, is shown some of the results of good reporting.

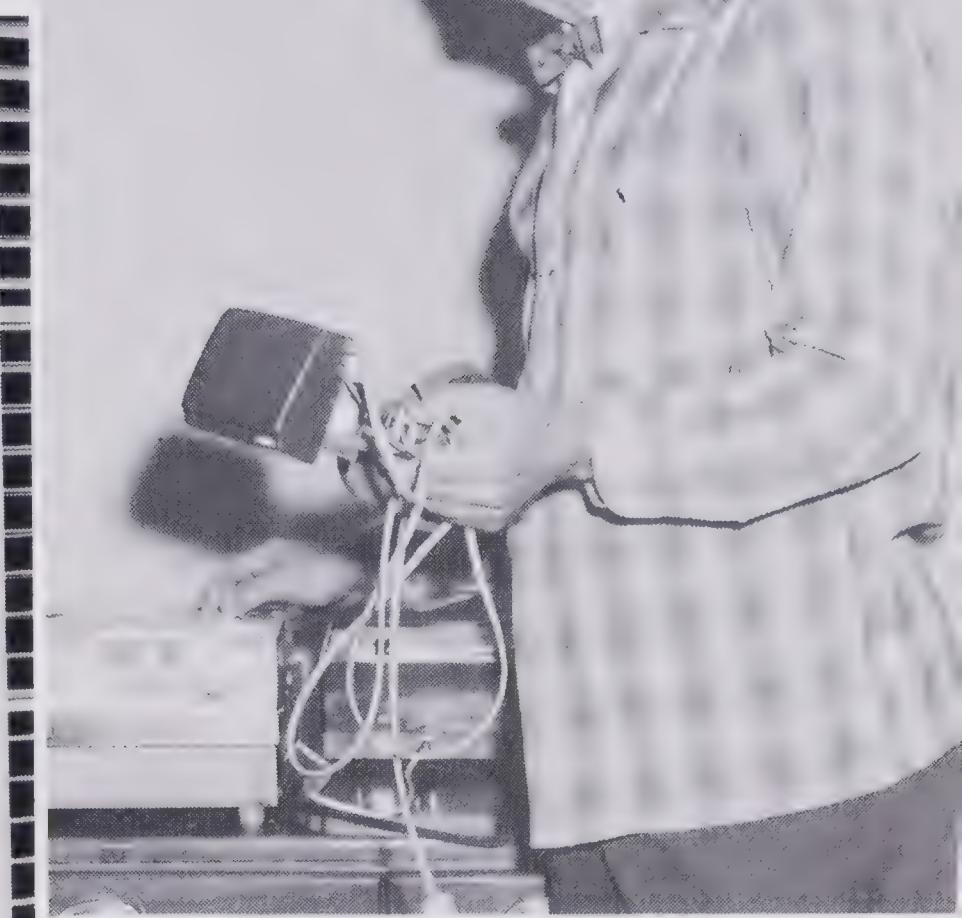

Mr. William Lowe, B. TH., a graduate from Auburn Academy, currently instructs in English and Bible.

Mrs. Marie Lowe, B. A., a versatile teacher, instructs in English, Developmental Reading, Health, and mathematics.

Elder Vernon Berry, B. A., M. A., who spent many years in mission service, heads the foreign language department, teaching both Spanish and French to eager and confused pupils.

Writin' 'n Grammar

The new head sets in the foreign language laboratory aid students in speaking and understanding.

During the Faculty-Talent Program, Mr. Lowe relates the tale of a visit to a Jewish Wedding.

Dorm Life Brings

Understanding and cheerful, Mr. Kermise Rowe, Dean of Boys, is much appreciated by the boys.

One doesn't need a stepladder to reach those hard-to-get-at places. Allan Anderson serves the purpose well for Tom Crook.

Mr. David Mummert, Associate Dean of Boys, finds time in his busy schedule to teach algebra, and girls' PE classes.

Oblivious to their surroundings, C. Sukow, D. McCoy, A. Dressel, and D. Gust relax in the spacious lobby as Larry Crooker works at cleanliness.

Friends, Fun, Activities

Guardian of the girls of Gibson Hall is Miss Frances McKnight, B. Ed. She carries the double assignment of Assistant Dean of Girls and Home Economics teacher.

"We'll go back to the dorm when the ferry gets here and no sooner!"

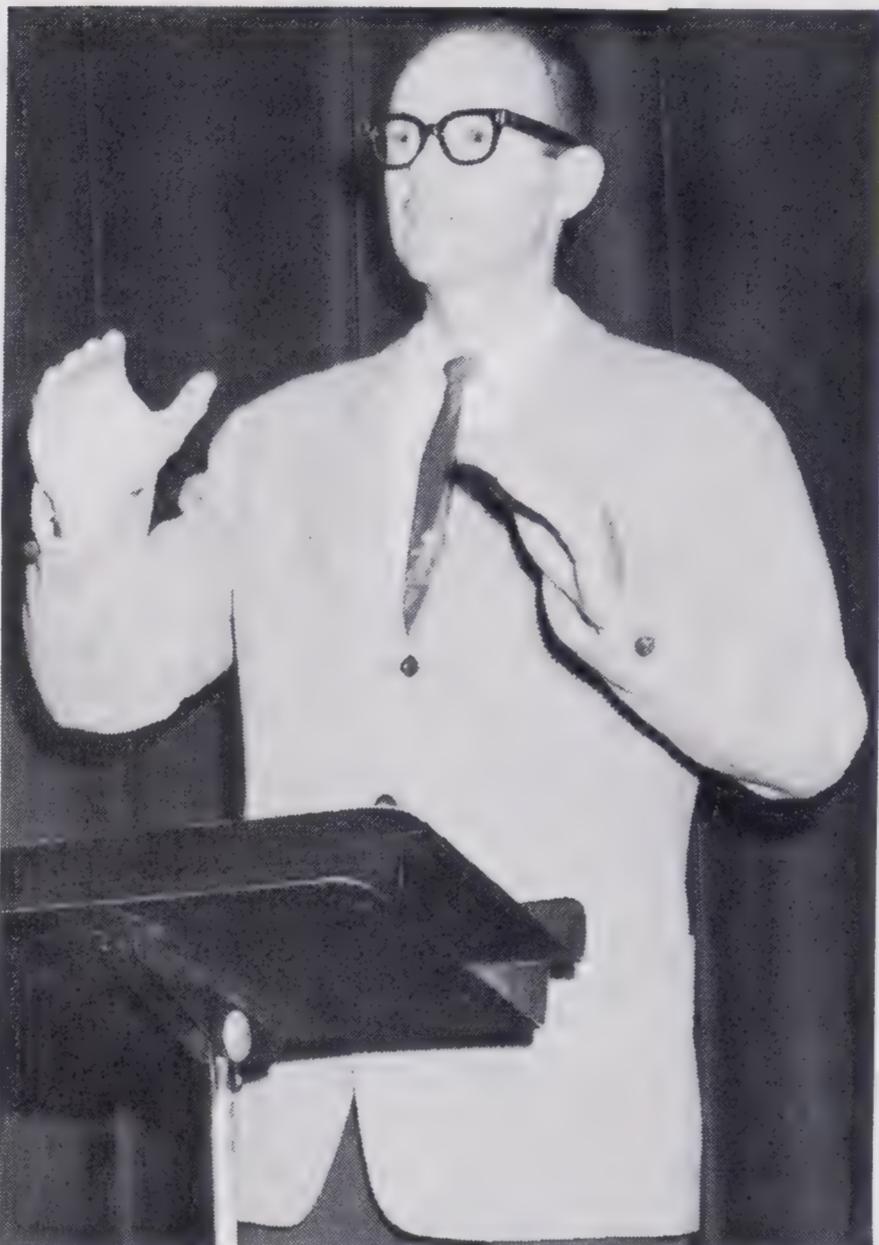

Miss Rosemary Bradley, B. A., Dean of Girls, knows the responsibilities of caring for 150 healthy American girls.

The maidens of Zeta Kappa, Becky Taylor and Margie Gust, try to make the dorm a little more like home during the holidays.

Mr. Leland Quinn, B. Mus. Ed., band director; gives lessons on all instruments from the flute to the sousaphone.

Mr. LeRoy Weber, B. A., piano, organ, and orchestra instructor, is an accomplished musician.

"...and I'll sing once more." Mr. James Hanson, B. Mus. Ed., directs the academy choir and Sylvan Chorus. He also instructs the students in voice.

Strains of Music

Because Auburn Academy does not concentrate on extracurricular sports, it finds another avenue in which its students may excel. - - - "My heart will be blessed with the sound of music..."

They also serve who stand and wait.

Ails, ills, exhaustion and pills make the life of Mrs. Lois E. Berry, R.N., Academy nurse, a busy one.

Trying to keep everyone healthy isn't easy. Mrs. Berry gives careful attention to Kathy Wenger as Maurene Dahl stands by.

The Home Economics classes specialize in cooking food well, as they will testify. Miss McKnight serves Maurene Dahl at their own home-cooked Christmas Dinner.

Members of Home Economics II are enjoying the fruit of their labor - a Chinese dinner.

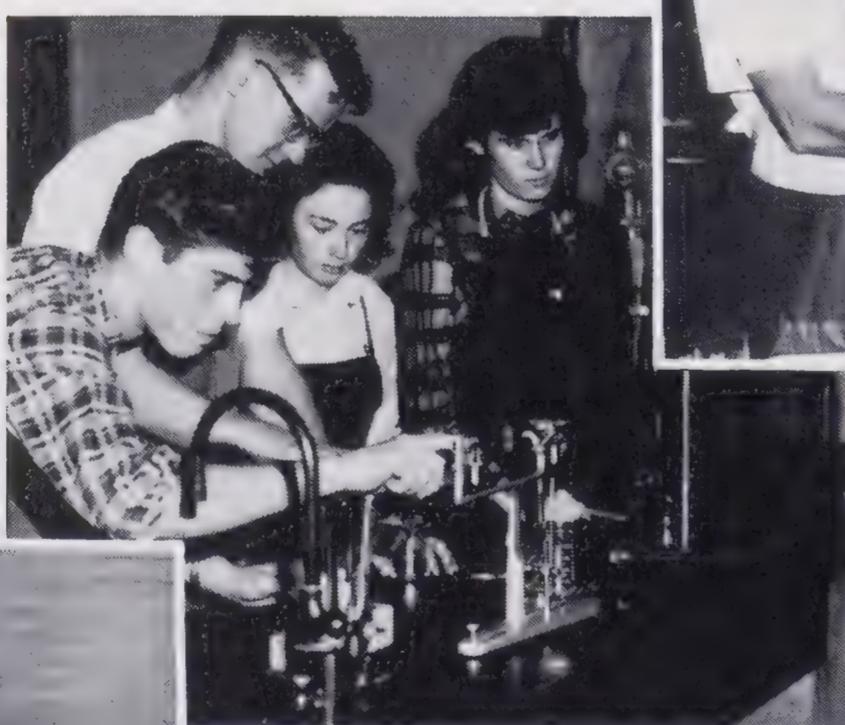

Mr. Wesley Parker, B.A., M.S., head of the physics and mathematics departments, has many hobbies ranging from skiing and "ham" radio to photography.

Biology and chemistry classes are taught by Mr. Harold Weir, B.A. The new, well-equipped laboratory is a department of microscopes and test tubes and Bunsen burners.

Mathematics and Science

Kathy Aitchison finds that there is nothing like the actual specimen from which to learn.

To the physics class comes knowledge of weights and balances, measurements and electronics.

Mr. Parker's "ham" enthusiasm is apparent by his many radio call cards from all over the world.

JoAnn White and Barb Aitchison prepare trimmings for one of the favorite meals--Shamburgers.

MRS. FLORENCE AIME--Food Service Director

Cafeteria

The cafeteria is a busy place at any time, but it's especially popular three times each day at meals. During breakfast, lunch and dinner, it is filled with over 350 hungry and hurried students.

The cafeteria provides employment for over forty workers, and is under the direction of Mrs. Florence Aime. Facing a hungry family of four or five, three times a day is challenging enough, but multiply that by seventy-five or eighty--that's what faces the cooks.

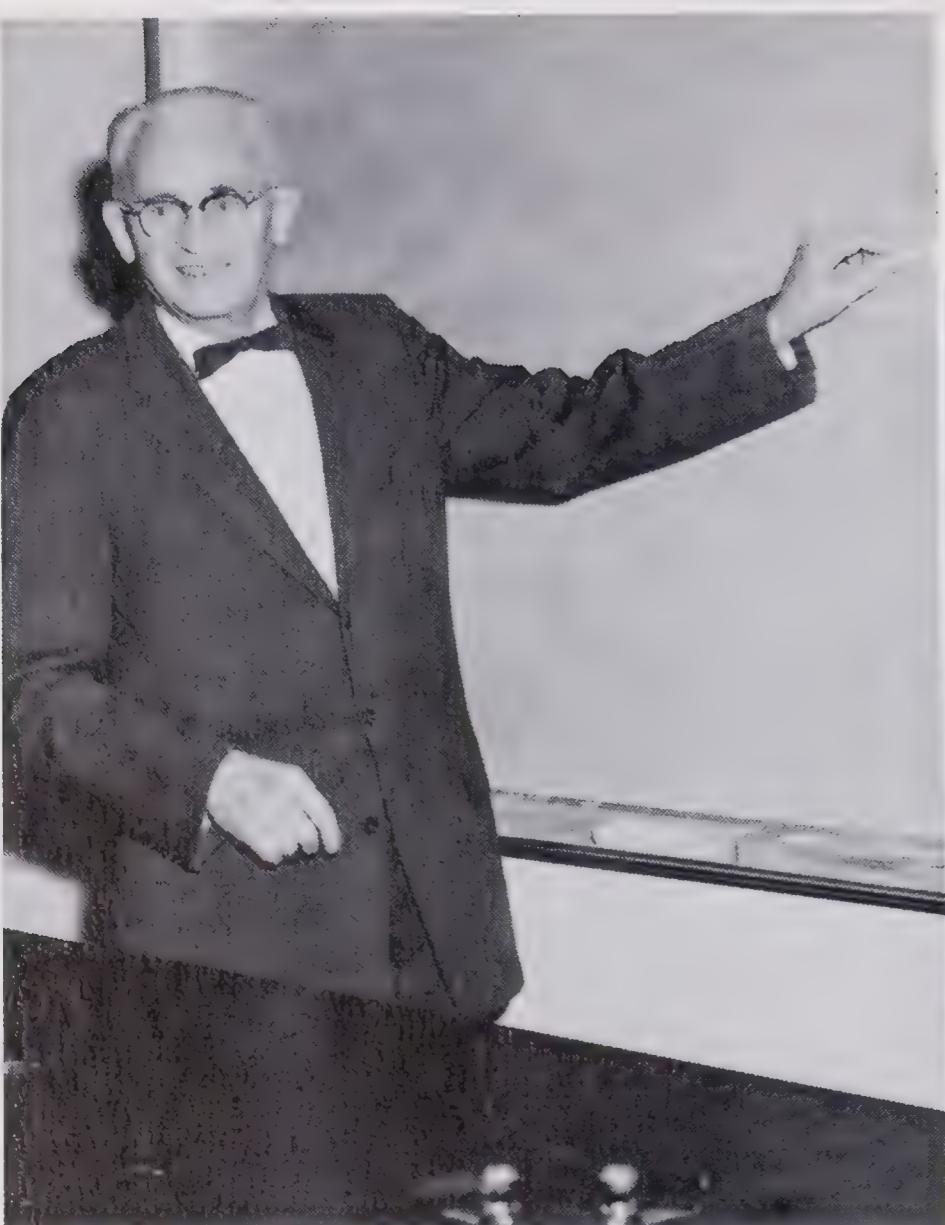

MRS. ROSEMARY FARVER--
Associate Food Service
Director

MRS. MARIE CHADWICK
MRS. DOROTHY DONAHEY
Assistant Food Service
Directors

Spacious Plant and Requires Specialized

Elder Clifford L. Witzel, B.A., M. Ed., after whom Witzel Hall is named, teaches Electronics and Old Testament History. He has been with the Academy for over twenty years.

The beautification and care of the academy grounds is the job of Mr. Don Mundy.

Mr. Don Wertz, B.A., plant engineer, admiringly inspects the new boiler.

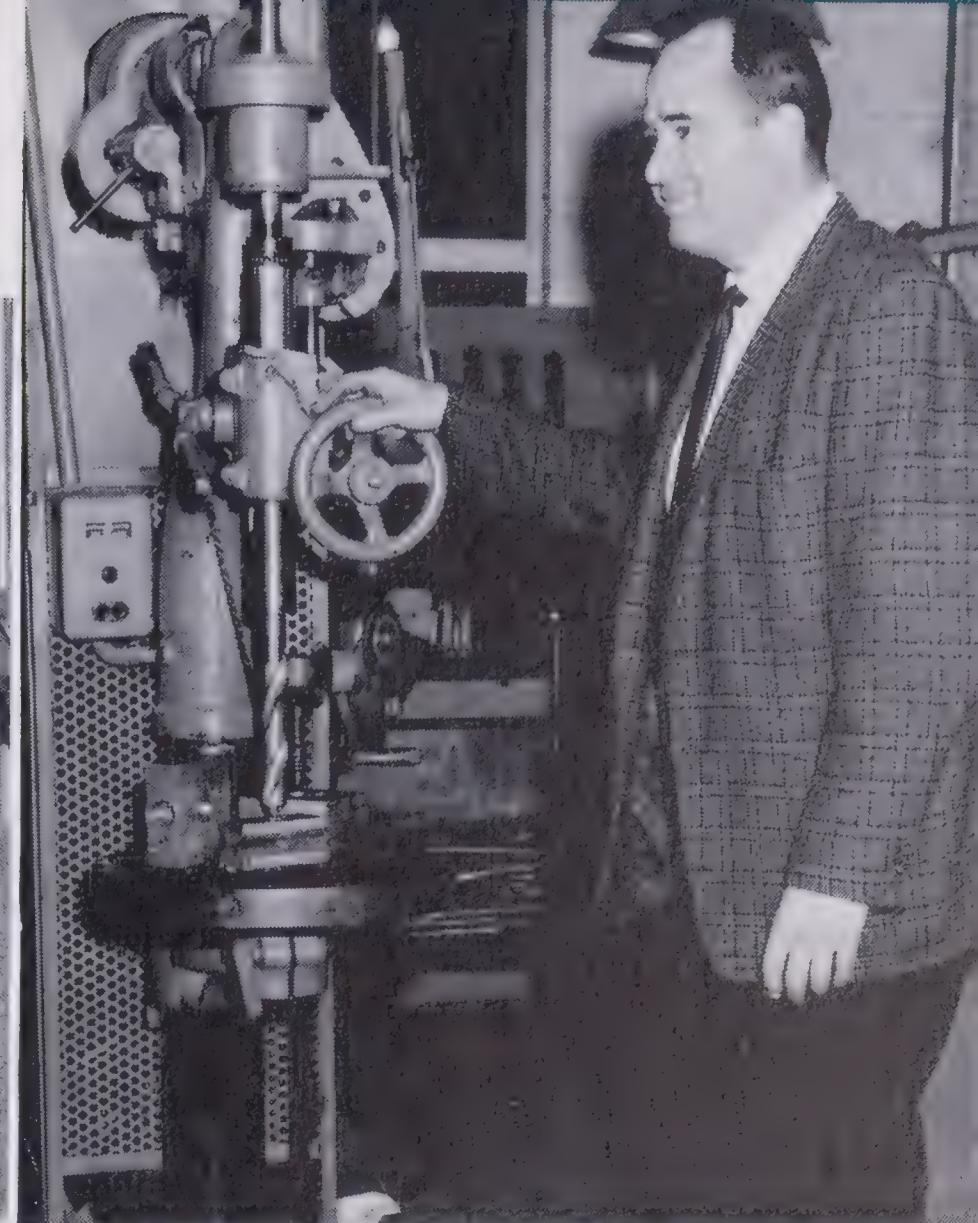

Elder Witzel oversees the work of Gary Heminger in electronics class.

And their's is to labor at many tasks--The ground crew prepares another flower bed in the long task of landscaping the campus.

School Campus Constant Care

The maintenance department and carpentry class are under the direction of Mr. Eugene Wesslen, B. S., Ed. M.

"There is a time to build." Mr. Wesslen instructs his carpentry class in the correct method of building a model home.

Mr. Ed Spady, B. S., M. Ed., teaches vocational courses--Mechanical Drawing, Welding and Woodworking.

Welding, the art that meets many needs, is used by Ron Shull.

Mrs. Barbara Leadbetter, manager of the campus store, inspects some of the canned goods the store carries.

"Oh, come on, please!" Steve Rogers implores Mrs. Leadbetter to have a heart and hand over the rest of the cookies as Kay Masterjohn and Charles Lynch look on.

Vital Service Centers

Carol Cooper keeps the wheels of pressing going as she feeds another sheet into the hungry mangle.

Assistant Dean of Girls, Mrs. Delmarie Null, relieves both associate deans from much work in the girls' dormitories.

Mr. Charles Null serves as keeper of the gates. He protects the academy from outside "attack" and inside catastrophe.

Mr. Robert Farver, B.S., manages the farm that supplies the academy with its milk.

The farm - a reminder of the slow-moving past and part of the fast-moving present.

Mr. James Simpson, General Manager, checks pertinent information in his files.

Office personnel, Mrs. Joe Dickerson, Mr. Russell Slabach, Mr. Eldon Spady, Mr. Ted Chadwick, and Mr. Joe Dickerson confer often with Mr. Simpson on new furniture designs and production plans.

Large machinery is mastered by one of the shortest juniors, Jim Downs.

Academy Furniture

Auburn Academy Furniture, the largest campus industry, employs 61 adults and 115 students. The student workers earn approximately $150,000 annually toward their expenses.

The high quality maple products manufactured include home furnishings, from bookcases and desks, to bedroom and dining room sets.

Foremen cooperate in producing top quality furniture.

Governing Organizations-

Integral Facet of Education

The Student Senate handles all the business of the Associated Student Body. The classes are represented by the following students: Bill Seavers, Jr.; Kathy Fletcher, Fresh.; Rene Rebisch, Jr.; Sue Helland, Soph.; Bob VanDenburgh, Jr.; Jim Becraft, Jr.; Mr. Ron Miller, Advisor; Jeff Dupee', Chairman; Jennefer Penfold, Jr.; Steve Lowman, Jr.; Asta Sakala, Sr.; Kaye Zachrison, Sr.; Paul Ackerman, Sr.; and Wayne Kiselbach, Sr.

Publications

Paul Ackerman, Casa Loma campaign manager, holds the trophy won by the Knights of Casa Loma as Editor Marcia Baker rewards Leonard Powell for obtaining the most subscriptions.

Hot off the press, the Rainier Echoes is hurriedly read by Sue Helland.

Casa Loma Glee Club

Well-trained and talented, the men of the Casa Loma Glee Club with Mr. James Hanson conducting, are always on demand for various occasions.

Concert Band

The Auburn Academy Band, a touring concert band, is under the direction of Mr. Leland Quinn. It is a fitting representation of the school both on and off campus.

The A Cappella Choir is a large organization with a special purpose. Its officers are: Bill Lindeman, Carol Lindel, and Bob VanDenburgh.

Band officers have much to do in planning and organizing their tours. Their leaders are: Steve Brown, Darla Claridge, Aileen Mitchell, Jim Purdom, Kaye Zachrison, and Steve Bliss.

ABOVE: The Sylvan Chorus, with its careful rehearsals and many appearances, needs hardworking officers. THEY ARE: Lois Aimes, Kelly Bock, and Kathie MacGregor.

Year's Activities Begin with Registration

The first assembly of a new school year is not soon forgotten.

New students receive registration forms from Carol Bettes and Sue Helland on Step #1.

The last step - that of buying books - is welcomed but wearily received by registering Auburnites.

Sunset Lake Outings

Elder D. VanTassel, driver, was one of the few men privileged to accompany the maidens of Zeta Kappa to Sunset Lake.

Yes, it has been a long weekend, Miss Bradley!

Handling greased watermelons added to the fun. Kelly Bock is being pursued by Ken Pierson.

Water skiing was the main event. The water or the weather couldn't have been more perfect.

Miss Frances McKnight was the knight-cap of the evening as she literally brought the house down with a hearty "good-knight."

"It'll play when I learn to get into it," was Mr. Bob Farver's conclusion, as he experienced the trials of a tuba player with a too-small tube, or was it a too-big player?

Oh, what a tangled story we weave when first we practice to mispronounce! Miss Rosemary Bradley kept the audience bewildered with her story of Cillendrella.

Faculty Perform

With music straight from over (or was it from under?) the Rhine, the German Band, comprised of, Mr. Leland Quinn, Mr. James Hanson, Mr. Cliff Hayes, Mr. Wes Parker, and Mr. Harold Weir, demonstrated what faculty can accomplish.

The senior quartet, Ken Bariel, Steve Bliss, Larry Crooker and Dick McClain, took first prize for performing their own version of "Lil' Liza."

Amateur Hour

All attention was focused on Yvonne Crowder as she sang "Without a Song."

The junior trio, Janice Fletcher, Marilyn McCoy and Marilyn Luce, captured the thoughts of the audience as they sang "Three Little Maids."

As Marcia Baker recited "My Big Sister Millicent" fond memories of childhood came to the minds of many in the audience.

Paul Ackerman takes another plunge while the Fall Festival provides its own entertainment.

The senior trio, Carol Aimes, Cheri Leno, and Lois Aimes, sing a song of the season at the girl-ask-boy Christmas dinner.

Everyone has to test his strength at least once. Ask Karyl Whitney!

In a nearly deserted Fall Festival booth, Rita Tadej and Lois Aimes wait patiently for . . . what?

With Christmas all around, Santa Claus (Mrs. Crays) and Terry Treibel (ZK President) play the role in spreading Christmas cheer.

The stillness of the night was broken by the sound of carols, when the maidens of Zeta Kappa serenaded the knights of Casa Loma in the traditional style. Foreground: Sherrie Shull, Judy Peters, Jennifer Penfold, and Elaine Carver.

A "Merry Christmas" was extended by both clubs in the exchange of gifts. Del Griebel, President; and fellow Casa Loma members receive Zeta Kappa's present.

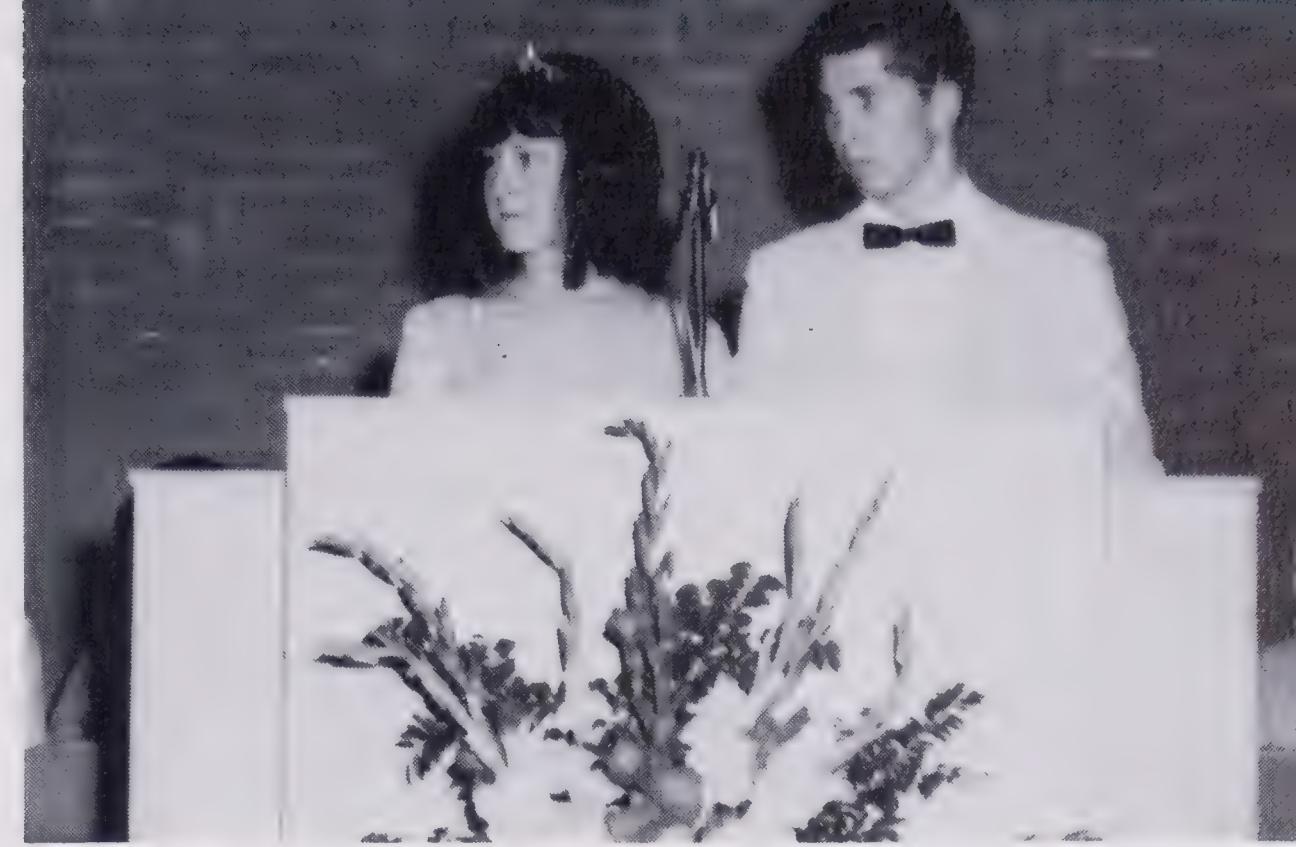

"Entreat me not to leave thee." English IV students combined their talents in a chapel program depicting many great moments from the pages of the Holy Scriptures. Shown in a scene from "Ruth" are Kaye Zachrisson, LaDeane Simmons, and Carol Cooper.

At a joint-club Valentine party, couples were pitted against each other as they discovered how much or how little they knew about their "other half." In intense concentration are Reneé Montgomery, Dave Rhynard, Kelly Bock (CL President); Arlee Trichia, and Asta Sakala

Outgoing ZK President, Terry Treibel; and CL President, Del Griebel; look solemn as they prepare to give up their offices.

The Zeta Kappa gavel changes hands as Terry Treibel relinquishes her rulership to Kaye Zachrison. Second Semester ZK officers, Rhonda Braaten, Val Dwyer, Kay Masterjohn, Laura Libby, Carol Lindel, Kathie MacGregor, and Karen Jacobson look on.

Dorm Clubs

Stimulate School Spirit

"Little Women," Nancy Loewe, Lucy Baker, Laura Dalgleish, and Rene Rebisch add a touch of the classic to the Hour of Enchantment.

The Faculty-Senior Reception was a progressive house-to-faculty house party, filled with food, seniors, and surprises.

The Junior-Senior banquet of 1966, featuring the charm of a "Southern Serenade," was a night not soon to be forgotten.

Monty McCoy, Connie Davis, Kandy Crawford, and Paul Ackerman were at the punch bowl and chandelier enjoying the elegance and splendor of the old South.

Skool Daze with Rosie Bradley, LeRoy Weber, Leland Quinn, Bessie Soule, Willy Lowe, Eddie Norton, and Squee Berry revealed the faculty as they once were.

Faculty and Juniors Entertain Seniors

The rich, full, and thrilling voice of Mr. Robert Delafield with Mr. Victor Smiley at the piano, kept the banqueteers entranced.

Spring brings flowers, but it also brings many baseball players. Larry Crooker, Doug Gust, and Steve Kreuger experience the fun of a free afternoon.

"Aw, come on, he was safe!" Doug Gust, Larry Crooker, and Paul Ackerman sustain the rigors of baseball, the obsession that brings happiness to millions.

Sports

Connie McClannahan and Val Dwyer, prepare with Mr. Mummert and Linda Larson, for the jump in another grueling girls' game of basketball during PE class.

BELOW: Tense and ready, Larry Aberle, Jim Miller, Goral La-Porte, and Kelly Bock wait for Jim Thompson's free shot, while Mr. Rowe referees during one of the exciting Junior-Senior games.

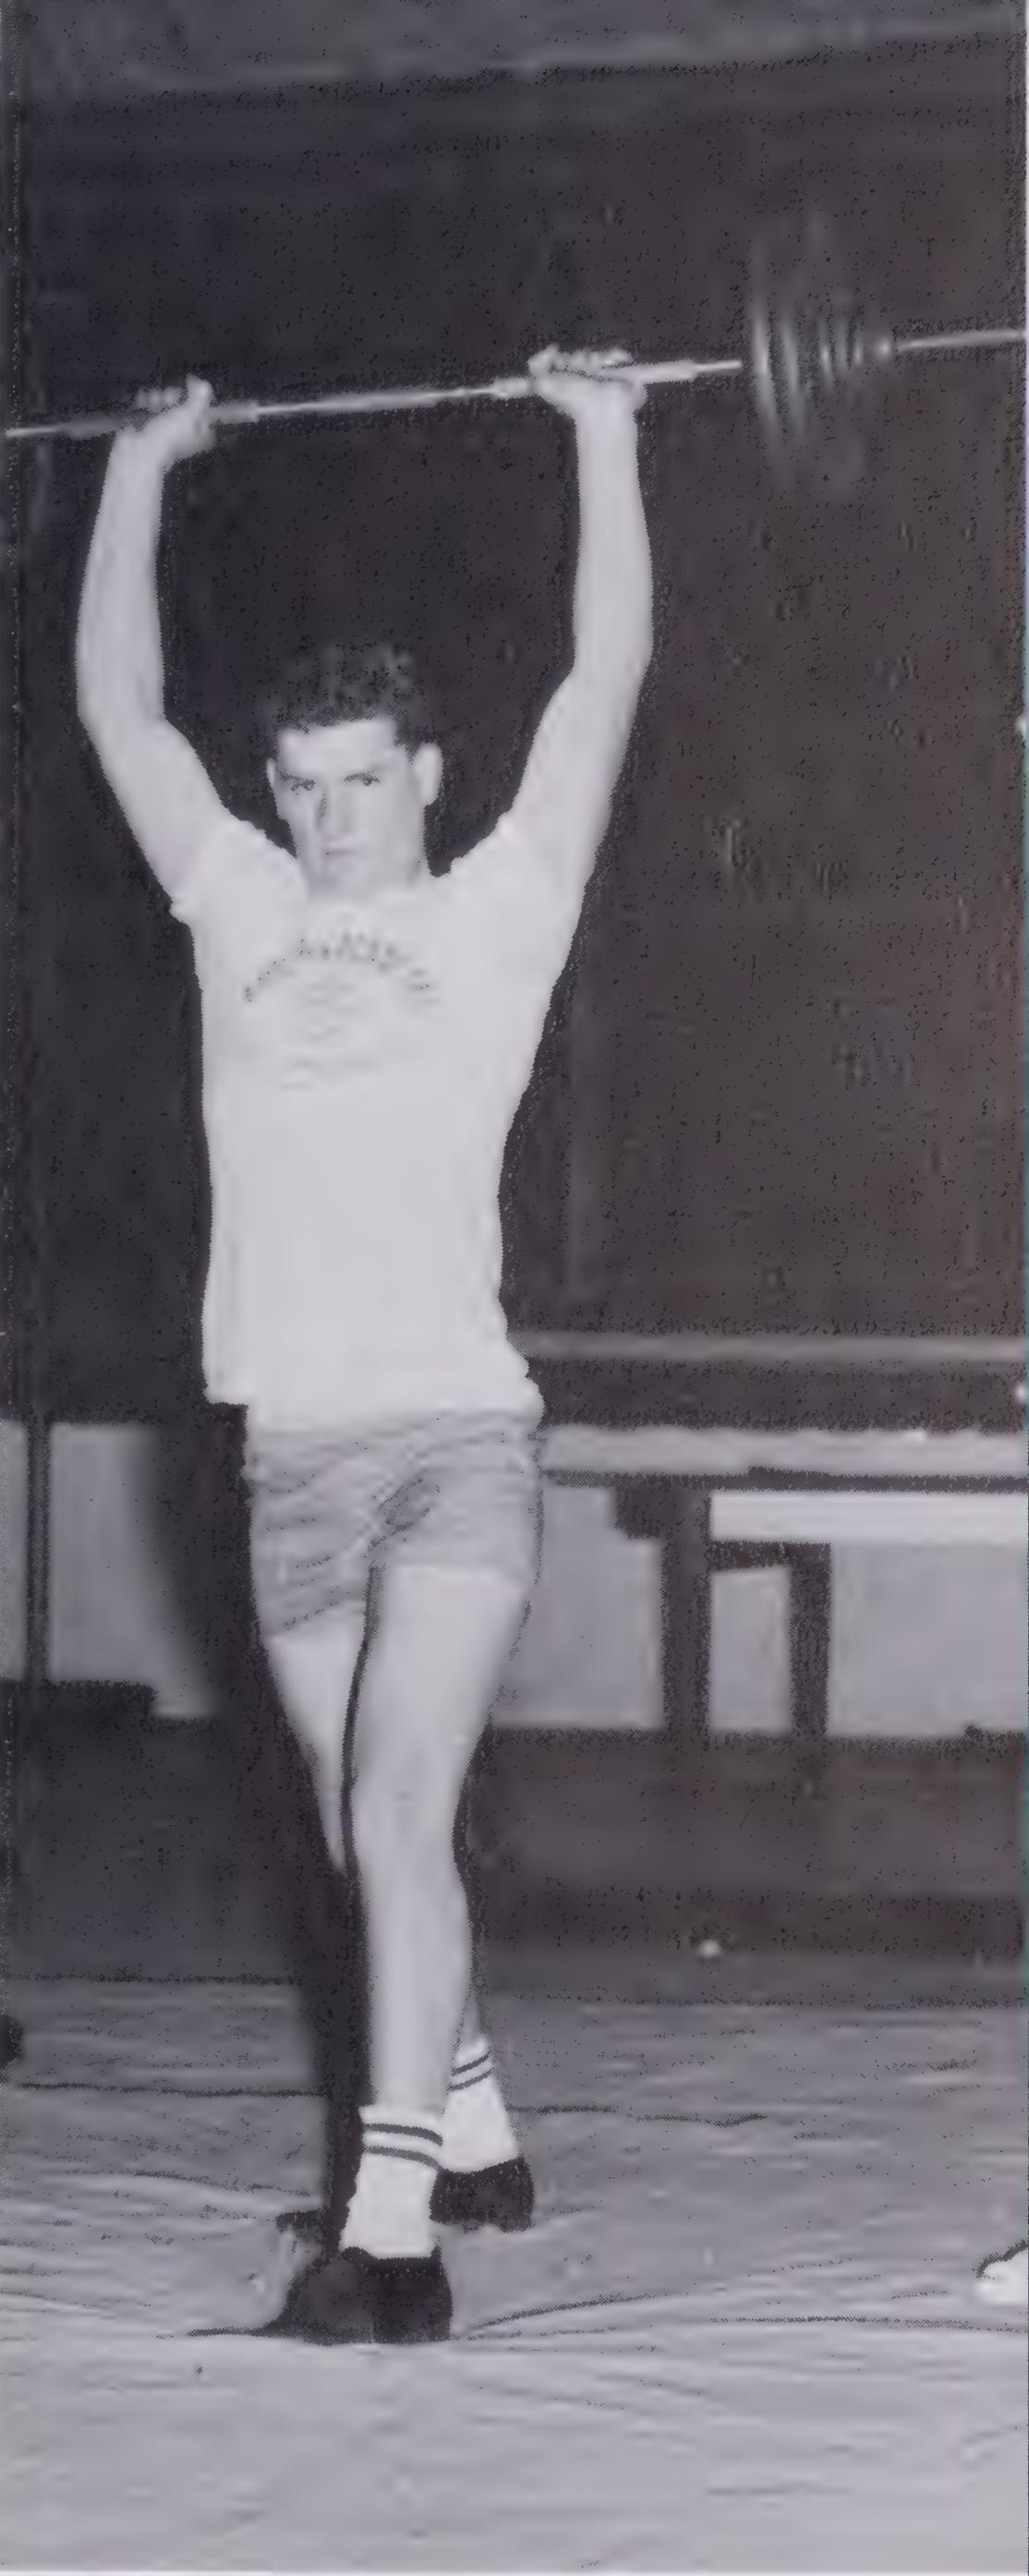

After one of the many heated basketball games, Don Blackmon returns some of the equipment to Paul Karmy in the supply booth.

Basketball is the top sport on Auburn Academy's wintertime campus. The P. E. class waits expectantly for Dennis Ondrejka to shoot while Mr. Rowe gives instructions.

Muscle Builders

Even Kelly Bock's smile wasn't enough persuasion for this one. Those who participated in the Donkey Basketball game soon realized that they needed more than just "brute force."

Auburn Academy puts emphasis on physical development. Bill LeClair works with the weights during a P. E. class.

Senior Officers Lead Class to Greater Achievement

Capable officers head the Senior Class:

on a bleak December day. With the running of the sands of time the intervening years have become Yesterday. The sands run swiftly and soon Tomorrow will be Today. Now, 1966, at Walla Walla College modern buildings, fine equipment and facilities, and an accredited faculty call you to a Christian College. But none of these can halt the sands of time.

...It's Farewell

As another school year closes and the time of graduation and departure draws near, the faces of friends display the mixed emotions of unsurpassed joy and nostalgic sadness. With much to look back upon, but much more to look forward to, they leave. With them they take a part of their school, their friends, their teachers. Each leaves a place to be filled by another, but not quite.

They remember all the good, the enriching, the happy times, which far outweigh all others. And from these times they build and grow, to develop a life of loving service and meaningful achievements.
